Columbia, Ky.

Death of M. E. Wilmore.

Last Sunday evening at 6 o'clock Mr. M. E. Wilmore, who lived in the Gradyville country, and who was one of Ada's best citizens, died after a long illness. He was 67 years old and was an Elder in the Columbia Presbyterian Church. He was a man of strictest integrity, and an active church and Sunday-school worker. He was a man for whom every body had the utmost respect, and his death is deeply deplored by the entire county. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown.

Who Preaches Next Sunday.

-J. L. Kilgore at Carmel.
-E. W. Barnett at Zion.
-W. S. Dudgeon at Mt. Roberts.
-T. L. Hulse at Picket's Chapel.
-W. H. C. Sandidge at Marrowbone.
-T. F. Walton at the Presbyterian church, this city.
-W. B. Cave at West Fork, Cumberland county, will spend a week in that community.

While in town last Monday, Olie McCaffree was severely kicked by a mule on the leg. The gash cut by the mule's foot was about three inches in length. A physician was summoned, who sewed up the wound.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

We, the Democrats of Adair county, in mass meeting assembled for the purpose of giving public expression in regard to the conditions that confront the people of this State, do hereby submit the following:

We deplore the present state of affairs and regret the untimely end to which our matchless and courageous leader, Wm. Goebel, has been brought. We denounce his murder as the act of an assassin whose deed is unparalleled in the annals of this State. We denounce the acts of Wm. Taylor, acting Governor of this State during the legal contest, in bringing to Frankfort citizens of rough and questionable characters, armed with deadly weapons for the purpose of intimidating the legal representatives of the people in determining the contest there in progress. We condemn the act to adjourn the Legislature by Wm. Taylor to prevent it from meeting in the Legislative Hall for the purpose of deciding said contest after all the evidence had been submitted by both parties.

We approve the action of the Legislature in its entirety and especially in probing the many charges of fraud and in its decision of said contest—making Wm. Goebel Governor of Kentucky. We denounce no acts of violence. We pledge ourselves to the maintenance and preservation of law and order, and trust that cool judgment and discretion will prevail in all our councils.

We heartily approve the good advice given by the leaders of our party in preventing any demonstrations of violence and revenge against the most atrocious crime known to the history of this or any other State. We demand that the assassin be brought to justice and approve the reward offered by the Legislature for the apprehension and conviction of the assassin. We trust that all good citizens will join in just condemnation of this crime that struck down the greatest leader our party has ever known in this State and that all will assist in bringing the assassin to justice. Committee:—Jo Hill, Nathan Taylor, J. B. Montgomery, Jno. Diddle, J. H. Young, Dr. S. W. Strange, W. C. Loy, Ben F. Tupman, Jo A. Thompson, A. C. Loy, A. Loy, Charles S. Harris.

Mr. C. H. Williams, who is employed by the Green River Valley Railroad Company, writes Mr. W. F. Jeffries, of this city, that there is no doubt but the proposed road will be built, and through Columbia. The expert, who went over the route, submitted his report some days ago, and the syndicate was well pleased with the line. The company will want the right of way through Adair and $50,000, and as soon as the political muddle is settled work will begin. The company has already expended $40,000 in locating the line. Mr. Williams also states that the machine shops will be located at Columbia.

Miss Mary Murrell, sister of Rev. J. L. Nathan and James Murrell, who has been afflicted all her life, died suddenly last Sunday. She ate her dinner and seemed to be in her usual health. Retiring from the table she took a seat in a chair by the fire, and shortly fell over dead. She was about fifty-two years of age—a helpless imbecile from birth, but she was kindly cared for by affectionate brothers and sisters. Her parents died many years ago.

Dr. A. Baugh, the County Clerk of Russell, is making a very efficient officer. His son, Eld. Arthur Baugh, is the deputy. He is a fine business man, very accommodating, and keeps a tidy office.

Last Sunday night Mr. Ruel Stone and Miss Maud Epperson, who have been sweethearts for some time, evaded the watchful eyes of the girl's parents, and eloped to Tennessee, and were doubtless married the following afternoon. The bride is a daughter of Mr. T. J. Epperson, one of the best citizens of Adair county. He is an affectionate father, and will doubtless forgive his daughter upon her return.

Paid since our last issue: T. L. Smith, H. C. Bottom, L. H. Cabell, K. E. Chitwood, E. T. Hood, J. L. Johnson, N. C. Butler, W. L. Roberts, Geo. Campbell, J. T. Taylor, Lane Hartfield, T. P. Jeffries, Matthew Strange, J. D. Weatherford, Dr. S. W. Moore, J. W. Roach, J. T. McElroy, W. T. Moore, Jas. O. Nelson, A. B. Nelson, Dr. A. Shively, C. Dohoney.

An illustrated copy of the Glasgow Times reached the News a little late, but its brightness had not disappeared. The many half tone cuts of the business houses and other enterprises, and of the leading men of Glasgow, gives the paper a splendid advertisement and also the city in which it is published. It is a thing of beauty, and shows the push and enterprise of its proprietors.

The death of Mr. Sam F. Barbee will not interfere with the running of the stage line between this place and Campbellsville. Mr. A. R. Barbee, father of the deceased Sam F. Barbee, informed us a few days since that the line would continue as heretofore. Lee Johnston, the colored driver, who has been sick for several weeks, will handle the reins as soon as he is able to drive.

Mr. W. B. Harris, a traveling salesman, who has become quite popular with the young people of Columbia, gave a candy-pulling at the Conover Hotel last Saturday night. A large crowd was out, and it was an occasion enjoyed by all. The thanks of the young people are due Mr. Harris for being the author of this delightful affair.

Last Friday night the string band composed of Messrs. Mont Harmon, Thomas and Everett Murrell, called on Mr. W. S. Sutherland and family near Cane Valley, and spent a few hours in making good music. These young men are fine musicians and Mr. Sutherland regrets that they did not stay longer. He says they are more than welcome to come again on a like mission.

Mrs. Nona Cabell entertained a party of young people Thursday night; Mr. and Mrs. Barker Friday night. Miss Edie Bradshaw also entertained on Thursday evening; and Misses Mary and Lena Todd on Saturday night. The young people of Columbia are on the go and there is not a doubt but they are going.

Lee Webb, of color, who was perhaps one of the oldest women in the State, died two miles from Columbia Thursday morning. She was between 110 and 120 years old. Her exact age could not be arrived at, but it is known that she was brought from Virginia to this county in 1779. Her sight was good as when young at the time she was taken sick.

The Trustees of this city are considering the proposition of employing a Town Marshal. The number of pistol shots upon our streets last Saturday night is an evidence that a peace officer is needed to watch inside the corporate limits of Columbia. If a deal is made Mr. Geo. Coffey will be the marshal.

Masco McCaffree and Philip Shirliff caught sixty suckers in a little while one day last week. A hole was cut in the ice, and one drove while the other hooked.

W. L. Walker's auction sale attracted a large crowd last Monday. The sales amounted to about $100 and a good lot of goods were sold.

Capt. J. S. Chapman sold his farm and business house last week to Mr. Pinar Harvey for $1850, and left for Barren county Monday to look him up at a location.

For sale, two good milch cows with young calves; two mare mules, one year old past, and one good thoroughbred short horn bull two years old. C. R. Cabell, Camp Knox.

Mr. John D. Sharp was in Columbia Monday. He says thousands of logs are now lying in the tributaries to Cumberland river, and as soon as a freshet comes they will be rafted to Nashville.

Many weather prognosticators predict that the present month will be very gentle while others think that we will be visited with some very cold waves.

Dr. J. H. Grady's office is now located on the public square. He is occupying a room over Reed & Miller's store, where he can be found by persons desiring his services.

The town council, we understand, has under consideration the employing of a town Marshal. If the past is a criterion of the future, we would say there will be times when a Marshal will be needed.

We are informed that Mr. J. W. Coffey and family, upon their return from Campbellsville, will occupy the residence, on Burksville street, owned by Mr. N. M. Tutt, recently vacated by the family of R. L. Johnston.

A chardade party, in honor of Mrs. T. H. Curd, of Middlesboro, was given at the residence of Mrs. Nona Cabell Monday night. There were many present. A splendid time, good music, etc.

Eld. Lawrence Williams has been employed by the Christian church of this place for this year. He will preach the first Sunday in each month. Last Sunday was his regular day, and he delivered two interesting sermons.

Any young man in Adair county who is qualified to enter Center College, and who has a moral character and a steadfast purpose to employ his time in gaining information, can get a scholarship in said college free by applying to Judge W. W. Jones.

J. B. Coffey purchased for Coffey Bros., at the Danville sale last week, the celebrated stallion, "Kentucky Squirrel," one of the most noted horses in the State. A few years past he was sold by W. F. Owsley, of Burksville, to J. W. Bales, of Richmond, for $1,900. He never met defeat in a show ring.

Your attention is called to the advertisement in this issue of The Aetna Life Insurance Co., represented by Mr. W. D. Jones. The company is a good one, a safe one, and Mr. Jones is a conservative and reliable business man. If you want insurance give Mr. Jones a call.

Mrs. Mont Cravens entertained the following ladies at dinner, Feb. 5, in honor of Mrs. T. H. Curd, of Middlesboro: Mrs. Anna Poore, Mrs. W. A. Coffey, Mrs. W. E. Bradshaw and Misses Emma Hunn, Nettie Baker and Edie Bradshaw.

Mr. S. H. Mitchell, Jailor of Adair County, will return from Texas in the next few days. He went to that State with the necessary papers to bring back to Adair county a fugitive from justice. There are several fugitives from Adair county, and the one in particular that Mr. Mitchell is after is not known at this office.

Mrs. Wm. R. Dohoney, who fell several days ago and received considerable bruises, has been confined to her bed ever since, but we understand that she is doing very well for one of her age. She is 80 odd years old.

Mr. C. S. Harris purchased of Judge Garnett, last week, the property "on the hill," known as the "Arbor Vitae" place for $800. There are about ten acres of land in the boundary. Mr. Harris will build an addition to the dwelling and make other improvements.

Last Thursday, Feb. 1, 1900, Miss Augusta Le Grande Phillips and Mr. Richard L. Johnson were married at the bride's home in Monticello. The bride visited here last summer and was a guest of Miss Gertrude Grady. The couple will reside at Henderson Kentucky.

John Coffey, alias Carter, was arrested in Monticello a few days ago, charged with stealing two horses, one from Adair county and one from Cumberland County. The horses were in his possession and were identified by the owners. The name of the Adair county man who lost a horse was John R. Johnson.

Dr. Wilkerson, of Green county, has charged Leslie Buchanan with criminally assaulting his daughter, Miss Mary Wilkerson, who is 17 years old. The officers were unable to locate Buchanan, and the father and the brothers of the girl were out last week with shot guns looking for the scoundrel.

GRADYVILLE.

Mr. J. D. Walker was at Edmonton last Saturday.

Mr. Collins, New Market, was with us one day last week looking after fat cattle.

Smith & Nell are spending a few days in Cumberland county looking after mules.

Mr. E. H. Hughes, one of our merchants, spent last week in Columbia.

Prof. Dillon recently organized a literary and debating society in his school with a large membership.

The social at Mr. Robt. Yates' on last Saturday night was largely attended by the young people of our city and was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. Strong Hill sold last week to A. J. Bridgewater, of Edmonton, a saw mill.

Mr. L. C. Hindman gave a social on last Friday night in honor of Miss Maud Purcell, of Grayson county, which was attended by a large number of our society people.

Mr. Washington Sneed, a well-known old gentleman of this community, was stricken with paralysis a week or so ago and is now in a very critical condition.

Dr. W. W. Bingham, of the Sulphur Fork community, was with us one day last week and informed us that in his community there were two or three new cases of small-pox.

Mrs. Nannie Purcell, daughter and son, of Short Creek, Grayson county, have been visiting their relatives in our community for several days.

Mr. H. A. Moss, the popular stage dealer of Greensburg, passed through our place one day last week en route for the western part of our county to take up some staves.

We are glad to note that Shelby Tarter, a well-to-do farmer, of our community, who has been confined to his room for two years or more with rheumatism in its worst form is able to be up in his room at this time.

Messrs. Geo. Keltner & Son, of Keltner, last week lost by fire a storehouse and stock of goods and a dwelling house and contents. Loss, about $3,800 with no insurance. The fire originated in a defective flue in the dwelling that was near by the storehouse. This should be a warning to us to have our property insured.

Two of our oldest and best citizens: P. A. Moss and John W. Smith, are confined to their beds and are considered to be in a very critical condition at this time.

Prof. Cabell, Joppa, gave us a very interesting singing last Sunday night, and will in the near future teach a class at this place. Prof. Cabell is a very fine instructor.

Smith & Nell, the well-known stock men of this section, bought last week 5 head of good mules and a horse for $500 and also sold one mule to J. W. Townsend for $85.

Miss Myrtle Staples and Mr. Fred Robertson, Columbia, spent a day or so in our town last week calling on their friends and relatives.

Hindman Bros. and R. L. Caldwell made a trip down Big Creek one morning last week on the ice and only caught 140. Mr. C. says that is a better way of fishing than seining in Metcalfe county.

John Scott, a well-known man of section of the country, while washing his face one morning last week dropped his pistol from his pocket, the weapon exploded taking effect in his mouth, killing him instantly. We understand that for many years he has carried a deadly weapon upon his person.

Many of our citizens met and passed the following resolutions: Whereas in the city of Frankfort, while quietly attending his daily duties, Hon. Wm. Goebel, Governor, was assassinated at the hands of an infamous outlaw, and who now is cold in the embrace of death, and whereas we recognize this crime as the most heinous ever perpetrated in the history of a civilized country and whereas, we recognized Mr. Goebel as a true, patriotic citizen, a defender of our rights and an avenger of our wrongs. Therefore, be it resolved by the Democrats of Gradyville, Ky.

1st. That we deeply deplore the sad sad outrage upon our fellow countryman.

2nd. We earnestly appeal to the civil authorities of the State to spare no time, talent or means to bring the guilty murderer to a speedy account of the cowardly assassination of our Chief Executive.

3rd. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the loved ones of the deceased, whom we loved as a brother and who will live in our hearts so long as time shall last.

4th. With one accord our sympathy goes out to a bereaved and grief-stricken State and that we pledge our loyalty to the party and principles which were so nobly championed by this departed hero—asleep with the true and brave.

May God's blessings comfort the loved ones of this man in their sad hours of bereavement.

H. C. Walker, Wm. Wilmore, J. J. Hunter, R. L. Caldwell, Allen Walker, J. D. Walker, G. P. Dillon, R. L. Campbell, J. A. Diddle, Committee.

JAMESTOWN.

Steve bucking is the order of the day. Mr. H. A. Moss, the popular stage dealer of Greensburg, was visiting Mrs. Walker Wilson, Dunnville, last Saturday and Sunday.

Widow Absher is very feeble at this writing.

Farmer are taking advantage of the good weather and are pushing work rapidly.

Ed Atkins and W. B. Patteson were here last week.

If you need life insurance and want to get in a company that is a company see J. E. Murrell.
